Notes & Comments:

This Interior Design firm has a well regarded and experienced team of designers, sales & support staff. 2015 business performance is trending to $2MM, with continued growth as seen in '14 & '13 (In 2014 staff & office systems were added, resulting in some 1x expenses). The business has a vibrant mix of residential & commercial projects in this mountain resort market. The strong reputation and depth of this company brings them regional opportunities, serving clients with multiple homes. Well established in the local community & industry, this business has a deep list of contractors, architects & referring homeowners. The business has weathered the economic & housing downturn very well, much better than many in the industry; they are very service oriented, and offer product lines that are very competitive within the industry. Business has a very nice showroom/office area, well located with a low overhead lease. Extensive employee team is responsible for high % of business sales, and to support the business transition to new ownership. The showroom is very well appointed & organized - great work space, excellent location!

Owner operates this business along with extensive staff including sales & design team & office manager. Industry specific software is employed to assist with the design process and provide professional, efficient options to the client. Business works directly with homeowners, contractors, developers and third party designers. Well established in the local/regional market, a high percentage of the business is within 30 minutes of their office. Owner offers flexibility in the transition plan of the business including initial training and on-going consulting, sales or design efforts.

This is a solid business with growing performance and mature Brand. Please act quickly!
